Over $12,000 Raised for Breast Cancer and the United Way

Employees from the Personnel Board and members of the Jefferson County Employee's Association came together last fall to raise money to help fight breast cancer. Through various efforts including a rummage sale, bake sales, penny wars and the Race for the Cure, these employees raised $4,357 for Susan G. Komen for the Cure North Central Alabama.

Personnel Board employee, Stacy Lange, was awarded the Coldwater Creek Spirit of Service Award for her work on the campaign. The award recognizes a special volunteer who symbolizes the spirit of volunteerism with his/her dedication and selfless service to the fight against breast cancer in the Birmingham community.

Through an energetic and highly competitive campaign, Personnel Board employees raised $7,846 in cash and pledges for the United Way of Central Alabama. The campaign kicked off with a football-themed gathering to lay out the rules to compete in the PBJC Super Bowl. Several teams formed and competed using creative fundraising activities. The campaign concluded with the awarding of trophies and prizes to the top three teams.
